

► However, if you think a 6am finish is late enough, there are plenty of other changes to enjoy. Manumission has left its 7,000-capacity home at Privilege for the comparatively intimate Amnesia; Tiesto, the first DJ to attempt to fill London's O₂ arena, moves in. And how to replace Pete Tong at Pacha? Book the stadium-filling dance acts Basement Jaxx and Faithless as residents, along with the new party sensations Swedish House Mafia. Steve Lawler returns to Sundays at Space, while the American DJ Danny Tenaglia is a Thursday resident, his first regular commitment on the island.

Ibiza Rocks is back with a series of outdoor events that embrace those who would rather gig than club, including the launch of the Ibiza Rocks Hotel at a converted San Antonio tourist resort. With acts such as the Enemy, Reverend and the Makers, Soulwax and the Fratellis booked, why would you want to stand in the mud at Glastonbury?

The celebrities have arrived before the DJs this year, with the Brazilian supermodel Gisele returning to the island to launch her sunglasses range. The make-up artist Charlotte Tilbury is back working on fashion shoots and Jade Jagger is as visible as ever. Then there is the small matter of Wayne Rooney's stag week in June. Bafflingly, he has requested 40-strong guest lists, but not the fashionable vodka-bottle service, the most cost-effective way of experiencing the best clubs. Elsewhere, Kylie Minogue, Robert Plant and Chas from Madness have all purchased houses in the hills. See what I mean about Ibiza making people cool? ☐

Ibiza's hot 10

1 Lunch and sunbeds at Blue Marlin beach club — still the place to be.

2 Friday night is decision time. Will it be Manumission at Amnesia, Pure Pacha or Pete Tong's Wonderland at Eden? Or you could just try them all. And try, try again.

3 Dinner at La Paloma in San Lorenzo, the village of choice in 2008, or lunch at the new La Paloma Cofa next door.

4 Hunt down an all-day party, starting with the Cocoon after-party on June 17.

5 Stay in five-star luxury at the new Gran Hotel in Ibiza Town or the Insotel Fenicia Prestige in Santa Eulalia.

6 Have drinks on the roof at L'Elephant — still the best way to kick-start the night.

7 Book a room at the Ibiza Rocks Hotel overlooking the stage where the Enemy play the opening party on May 31.

8 Watch daily irreverent web-TV packages from ibz.tv.

9 Experience the after-hours Breakfast Club parties at the refurbished Pikes hotel, near San Antonio.

10 Catch the Ibiza rock band Peter Colours live. Finally the island offers its own contender for Ibiza Rocks.
